

The luxury residential retirement home Sotwell Hill House is a late Victorian country house, set in almost twenty acres of landscaped parkland, which has been sympathetically restored and enlarged.

Reception rooms are elegantly furnished and enjoy magnificent views over open countryside.

Accommodation consists of 35 private bedrooms, both single and double, all en-suite. A six person lift serves the first floor.

The unique location and ambience of this family run home is complemented by the high quality of care, sympathy and understanding provided by our dedicated and permanent staff.

We rigidly apply a NO SMOKING POLICY.
